A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said: "I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my suffimer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated aroom just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost." The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now-she knows.

heavy cooking. Now—she knows.
Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't cat.
Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately that heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smoil, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

It has a Cabinet Top with a shelf for keeping plates and food hot. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

Mart Superstitions. Wart love is voluminous. It is said that a wart will leave a person if a lock of his hair is cut from the nape of his neck without his knowing it: that a wart will result if a frog spit on one; that warts may be cured by rubbing them over with a black snail, which must afterward be impaled on a hawthorn; that if a bag containing as many pebbles as one has warks be tossed over the left shoulder it will transfer the warts to the person who picks up the bag; that if one take a piece of twine, make as many knots on it as there are warts, touch each wart with the corresponding knot and bury the twine in a moist place, saying, "There is none to redeem it beside thee," the warts will disappear, and so on ad infinitum. Lord Bacon seriously wrote in one of his works how an intelligent and nonsuperstitions woman, the wife of An Electric fan will bring cool an English ambassader, had cured his spring-like breezes into your store or house no matter hot the sumwindow post in the sun.

Success.

The flower of true success may be gathered only by discerning persons who want it more than they want any other thing and who seek it through all the days of all the years. It has no imitation, is of but one variety and may not be pressed and dried between the leaves of any book, even the Bible. Its name is character. It is not a rare flower, accessible to only the few, but it is modest, of quiet mien and hue and is often hidden by the foliage and gorgeous blossoms of more spectaclar plants, so that the merely casual eyes of those who hurry along the life path seem to miss it altogeththe reason the trade of Al- er. It grows indoors and out, in all exandria is always growing seasons and weathers, and may be plucked by the black hands of the miner as well as by the hands of those whose time is given to less rugged and daintier tasks. The man who gathers character gathers success, no matter how he may be rated by the commercial ageocies.-Richard Wightman in Metropolitan Magazine.

Locked In With a Maniac. The writer was once closeted with a patient whom he had no suspicion of being mad until the latter got out of bed, turned the key of the door and preferred a mild request to the writer to have his throat cut, handing him at the same time an open pocketknife. which he produced from underneath customer once gotten is his pillow. I objected to the knife as formed with greater neatness and dispatch. He unlocked the door at once, binding me over to secrecy and urging me to lose no time in returning. I drove home, reported the case to the authorities and came back with assistance. He was secured with great difficulty and sent to the asylum .--London Tit-Bits.

> The Woman In Russia. "Love your wife like your soul and beat her like your carpet." This is a Russian proverb. Another of the same spirit, "Not long has the bumps from a loved one's thumps." Wives have undoubtedly been subjected to much ill treatment in Russia, where most husbands have always held to the opinion that "liberty spoils a good wife." Some Russian proverbs are eguleal as to the delights of matrimony, and most married men know how to say, "Wed once, wail always."

A Curious Painting. In Japan there is a very famous painting which no amount of money could buy and which is the masterpiece of a famous artist who lived seving in the daytime, one is disappointcommonplace landscape unrelieved by mountains or hills. As soon, however, as night falls one begins to realize the peculiar merit of the picture, for upon the canvas there appears a luminnous water buffalo (caribou) browsing upon the grass at its feet. The artist who painted this picture discovered a certain phosphorescent paint, which he obtained from the bodies of certain mollusks or fish, and with which he painted the buffalo that, invisible in daylight, is luminously brilliant in the dark. The secret of making this paint died with the artist. The picture, which hangs in a Buddhist temple, has proved a fertile source of superstition, the priests claiming that the buffalo hides away in the shade behind some trees in the picture during the heat of the day, coming out at night to graze.

Startled Their Host. A New Yorker decided to give a dinner in recognition of hospitality showered upon him by his friends recently. He asked two women he knew to go to a jeweler's and pick out some little souvenirs for the women guests. says the New York Sun. The host did not know it, but a detective accompanied the gifts to the house. Each woman found at her place at the table a handsome box. When these were opened there were cries of admiration. One woman drew out a diamond ring, another an emerald brooch, another a diamond crescent, a fourth a necklace of pearls, another a diamond tiara, and so on, until the output of the boxes represented about $50,000. The host had forced a smile when the first box was opened. As each trinket revealed seemed more costly than the last his jaw fell. Perspiration began to trickle down his face, which got so red that the women became alarmed. Then they explained that the jewels were a joke and were borrowed for the occasion.

The Picture In the Watch.
The following anecdote is related of Jerome Bonaparte: He had been playing cards until he lost all his ready money, then pledged his rings and finally laid his watch on the table. It was a small gold one, the back of which opened with a spring. A lady overlooking the game admired the watch and took it up to examine it. On her attempting to open the back Jerome immediately clasped it and said that must not be done. His wife, who stood by, insisted upon knowing what was in it, grew angry, reproached him with having some keepsake of a favorite there and finally, bursting into tears, quit the room. Jerome then opened the watch and showed to all present that it contained a beautiful miniature of his first wife, Betsy Patterson, with the remark, "You see, I hope, that I could not with propriety let her see it." It was notorious that he remained deeply attached to his first wife long after their separation.

The Mule's Ears. Evolutionists explain satisfactorily that the reason that the dog's cars lop is because for centuries the animal has been domesticated by man and has lain within the protecting influence of his hut and fire. The dog's ears are said to have originally stood upright, as do the wolf's today, but gradually as the necessity for keen hearing be came less imperative the dog's ears began to lop. But how about the mule? It is the duty of somebody to explain why the mule's ears have not lopped down. There is no need for Free Gate him to have stiff ears. The donkey, the horse and their progeny, the mule, have been under man's protecting in fluence for centuries and ages. The ass is the beast of burden of the Bible. His ears were stiff then, and they are stiff now. It would seem it was about time for them to begin to lop a little.

-Indiana Farmer. A Very Queer Custom. A curious custom takes place in villages of the Luxembourg district, Belgium, in May. After Sunday service numbers of lads cluster round the her well up, while a third bumpkin passes under the human bridge thus formed. This is done in the presence of the parents, who themselves have passed through the same ordeal.

His Sole Resting Place. A precise Boston teacher spent a quarter of an hour in impressing upon her class the right pronunciation of the word vase. Next day, hoping to reap the fruits of her labor, she asked, "Now, Johnnie, tell me-what do you see on the mantelpiece at home?" And Johnnie piped forth, "Father's feet, ma'am."-Harper's Bazar. Proved.
